With reference to the question raised at last Meeting re School children playing in the roadway Mr Royce proposed that the Clerk enquire of the Rev Mandall if he had received a communication in the matter from The Rutland Education Committee, & if so, What action had been taken.

A letter was read from Mr T. Rowett representing the Ex-Service men of Langham, offering on behalf of that organisation to present a Funeral bier to the Par. Council for the use of the Parish.

After careful consideration it was decided that the Council could not accept the offer as a Council, but recommended that a Committee be formed comprising members of the Council & Representatives of the Ex-Service men to accept and manage the same on behalf of the Parish.

The Council expressed its appreciation of the kind ~~offer~~ and generous offer which would in their opinion prove a very great boon to the Parish.

The following Accounts were examined and approved, & Cheques ordered to be drawn in discharge of the same.

Ellis & Everard — Granite — 5: 12: 3
C. Williamson -- Carting -- 1: 5: 0
