

Sir Henry Clarke-Jervoise

Born in 1831 he succeeded to his title in 1902 on the death of his nephew. Commissioned in the Royal Fusileers, he later served with the Royal Highlanders and rose to the rank of Lt. Colonel with the Coldstream Guards.

Sir Henry lived at Langham House and was a great benefactor to the village in general and to the church in particular.